FIND YOUR CALLING

Divinity is your essence.

As an individual, you are a valued member of society. You are as valuable as indispensable. You are so just for who you are. Destiny created you on purpose. It is no chance you landed on this sublime planet at a particular point of time and history. That has been all by design. Do you feel great surge of pride within? Just think of the Shakespearian insight:

How beauteous mankind is!

O brave new world

That has such people in it...

Life has more for you than the eyes behold. There lives an angel inside you. It lies deep at rest within. You have to see what angel is inside you. Activate your search engine better now. This angel is your treasure, lying deep in the dungeon of yourself, waiting to be found. Your life will change forever, the moment you find your angel. This is time for you to discover your natural talent. Each one of us is endowed with some unique talents in life. They could be your peculiar expertise or strengths or specific knowledge or skill. You can just look inwards to identify that talent which is dormant deep inside you. Such a talent could be innate or painstakingly learnt. It would be a challenge for you to convert it into the most dominant and enduring trait of your personality. This could be done only by finding your passion in life. What is that you love, your heart craves for? You may be able to accomplish many things. But what is that work the very idea of which gladdens your heart and refreshes your mind? A work that brings you joy. Every time, you do it you enjoy doing it and wish to do more and still more. You grow passionate about playing that role. In the process, you find it easy getting catapulted to the next level of expertise. Such positive force in life must be a pointer to your Calling. A passionate life is a blissful life. This can be an ideal life of purpose driven by passion and power. You may have learnt the simple truth of life: Success comes when you do what you love and love what you do.
